

Lesson 6 — 你平常喜歡做什麼？

What Do You Usually Like to Do?

Let's Learn Mandarin · Book 1 · Teacher's Manual

壹、學習目標 — Learning Objectives

Theme: Leisure Hobbies

After completing this lesson, students will be able to use Chinese to:

1. Name common leisure activities.
 2. Ask others about their hobbies.
 3. Discuss favorite activities with others.
 4. Describe their own daily activities.

貳、教學重點及教學活動設計 — Key Teaching Points and Activity Design

一、暖身活動 — Warm-Up Activities

1. Use pictures to help students become familiar with vocabulary for common leisure activities, and chat with students about their hobbies.
 2. Sentences to use in warm-up:
 - S + 喜歡不喜歡 + V?
 - S + (不) 喜歡 + V
 3. Assess students' learning level and incorporate the supplementary vocabulary from Integrated Activity 3 into the warm-up practice.

二、詞彙教學 — Vocabulary Notes

1. 做什麼 (zuò shénme) — “do what / what to do” When asking with 做什麼, a common student error is retaining 做 in the answer and tacking a verb onto it. For example:
 - A: 你喜歡做什麼？ — What do you like to do?
 - B: ✗ 我喜歡做唱歌。 (incorrect)
 - B: ✓ 我喜歡唱歌。 (correct — drop 做 in the answer)
2. 和 (hé) — “and” 和 is a conjunction that connects two parallel nouns or verb phrases. It cannot connect full sentences. For example:
 - ✓ 我喜歡聽音樂和跳舞。 — I like listening to music and dancing.
 - ✗ 我喜歡聽音樂，和我弟弟也喜歡聽音樂。 (incorrect — 和 cannot join two sentences*)
3. 和 — Two Pronunciations 和 has two standard pronunciations. The Taiwan Ministry of Education lists ㄏㄜˊ as the standard, but ㄏㄜˋ is also commonly heard. Teachers should explain and choose based on the situation.

4. 常常 (cháng cháng) — “often” The negative form of 常常 is 不常常 (not often), not 不常常.
5. 唱歌 / 跑步 / 跳舞 — Listed as Phrases (Not Separate Words)
There are two reasons these are listed as phrases rather than individual words:

First, the verb and noun components can each be used separately (what Professor Deng Shouxin calls “separable words”). For example: 唱什麼歌、跑了一小時 (步) , etc.

Second, the individual characters 歌, 步, and 舞 are rarely used in isolation, so they appear here in phrase form.

By contrast, 打網球, 聽音樂, and 看電視 are presented as two separate vocabulary items each, because 打, 聽, and 看 have high standalone usage frequency, and the nouns 網球, 音樂, and 電視 can also be used independently.

◎ Teaching Method

For beginning-level vocabulary instruction, it is recommended to proceed from top to bottom, using sentences as the foundation rather than teaching vocabulary in isolation from the text. Instruction should pair vocabulary with context, introduce the lesson text and grammar simultaneously, help students recognize vocabulary and become familiar with usage, and then consolidate pronunciation. For step-by-step details, refer to the suggested teaching flow in the Text Instruction section. When introducing vocabulary related to leisure activities, the concept of Chinese verb-object structure can be introduced (e.g., 打網球, 聽音樂, 看電視).

三、語法教學 — Grammar Patterns

Grammar Pattern 1 — 還 (hái) — “also / in addition”

The adverb 還 connects two actions or situations of the same subject. In addition to the first action or situation that has already been mentioned or is already known, 還 is used to add another action or situation that the listener does not yet know about. Note that when 還 is used, the auxiliary verb or main verb from the preceding clause must be repeated after it. For example:

- S + Vaux + V1 + O1, 還 + Vaux + V2 + O2
- 我喜歡聽音樂，還喜歡唱歌。— I like listening to music, and I also like singing. (喜歡 is repeated)
- 他喜歡跑步，還喜歡打網球。— He likes jogging, and he also likes playing tennis.

◎ Common Student Error: Students often omit the verb after 還. For example: ✗ 我喜歡聽音樂，還唱歌. (incorrect — 喜歡 must be repeated)

Grammar Pattern 2 — S + Time Word + 在 + Place + V (O)

In Lesson 3, students learned “S (N) + 在 + place + V + (O).” This lesson adds a time word to that structure. For example:

- 王明文上午在公園打網球。— Wang Mingwen plays tennis in the park in the morning.

◎ Common Student Error: Students may be influenced by their native language and place time and location phrases in the wrong position — for example, putting 上午 at the end of the sentence: ✕ 王明文在公園打網球上午。Teachers should use complete sentences for modeling and practice, and avoid lengthy grammatical explanations.

Grammar Pattern 3 — 也 and 都 Used Together

In Chinese, adverbs must always come before the verb. However, when both 也 and 都 are used in the same sentence, 也 is placed before 都. For example:

1. 我們都沒有弟弟。— Neither of us has a younger brother.
 2. 我有弟弟，他們也都有弟弟。— I have a younger brother, and they also all have younger brothers.

四、課文教學 — Text Instruction

◆ Key Sentences

1. 他平常喜歡跑步。— He usually likes to jog.
2. 我哥哥和我也喜歡唱歌，可是我們都不喜歡跳舞。— My older brother and I also like singing, but neither of us likes dancing.
3. 我還喜歡看電視。— I also like watching TV.
4. 我晚上常常在家看電視。— I often watch TV at home in the evenings.

◆ Suggested Teaching Flow

1. The teacher, speaking from Wang Jiawen's perspective, introduces his older brother Wang Mingwen's and his own leisure hobbies (pictures may be used), and says some sentences from the lesson text, such as: “我喜歡運動，我平常喜歡跑步。我哥哥平常喜歡跑步，週末喜歡去打網球。我哥哥和我也喜歡唱歌，可是我們都不喜歡跳舞。” This familiarizes students with the key sentences of the lesson.
2. Read through the text together; students prepare context cards to aid comprehension.
3. Introduce grammar: Divide the dialogue into sections according to grammar patterns and teach in sequence. First let students understand sentence meaning and roughly memorize pronunciation; then reinforce specific grammar structures and vocabulary. For example:

1. Use a situational context to introduce the following dialogue. This section practices “喜歡 + activity / 不喜歡 + activity” and the placement of 平常 and 週末.

A: 家文，你喜歡不喜歡運動？ B: 我喜歡運動，我平常喜歡跑步。
A: 你哥哥平常喜歡做什麼？ B: 他平常喜歡跑步，週末喜歡去打網球。你呢？ A: 我不喜歡運動。我喜歡唱歌、聽音樂和跳舞。

2. Teacher-student Q&A: Have students become familiar with the sentences, memorize the meanings, and practice pronunciation.
3. Sequentially introduce Grammar Pattern 1 (還) and Grammar Pattern 2 (S + Time Word + 在 + Place + V (O)), along with the lesson vocabulary for this section. Pay particular attention to the usage of 和. Use substitution drills to help students confirm the grammar structures and pay attention to pronunciation.
4. Wrap up by reviewing the dialogue, grammar structures, and pronunciation with students.

4. After reading through the text again, ask comprehension questions based on the text. Sample questions:
1. 家文喜歡不喜歡運動？ — Does Jiawen like sports or not?
 2. 家文平常喜歡做什麼運動？ — What sport does Jiawen usually like to do?
 3. 家文的哥哥平常喜歡做什麼？ — What does Jiawen's older brother usually like to do?
 4. Gloria 喜歡做什麼運動？ — What sports does Gloria like?
 5. 家文和他哥哥喜歡唱歌、跳舞嗎？ — Do Jiawen and his older brother like singing and dancing?
 6. Gloria 晚上常常在家做什麼？ — What does Gloria often do at home in the evenings?
 7. 家文晚上做什麼？ — What does Jiawen do in the evenings?

Have students answer the following based on their own situation:

8. 你喜歡不喜歡做運動？ — Do you like sports or not?
 9. 你平常喜歡做什麼？ — What do you usually like to do?
 10. 你週末常常做什麼？ — What do you often do on weekends?
 11. 你晚上常常在家做什麼？ — What do you often do at home in the evenings?
5. Have students practice reading the text in groups, then have individual students take turns reading aloud, and correct pronunciation.
6. Using the content of the text, have students use what they have learned to do narration exercises, in order to achieve the lesson's learning objectives. In addition to dialogue, students should also develop the ability to narrate independently.
1. Put students in pairs and, using the key sentences from this lesson, cooperate to introduce Wang Jiawen's, Wang Mingwen's, and Gloria's hobbies.
 2. The teacher provides necessary vocabulary or phrases via flashcards or PPT, and has students produce the following content:
 - a. 王家文喜歡運動，他平常喜歡跑步。 — Wang Jiawen likes sports; he usually likes to jog.
 - b. 王明文平常喜歡跑步，週末喜歡去打網球。 — Wang Mingwen usually likes to jog, and on weekends he likes to go play tennis.
 - c. 王家文和王明文也喜歡唱歌，可是他們都不喜歡跳舞。 — Wang Jiawen and Wang Mingwen also like singing, but neither of them likes dancing.
 - d. Gloria 不喜歡運動。她喜歡唱歌、聽音樂和跳舞。 — Gloria doesn't like sports. She likes singing, listening to music, and dancing.
 - e. Gloria 還喜歡看電視，她晚上常常在家看電視。 — Gloria also likes watching TV; she often watches TV at home in the evenings.

(The above content may be adjusted flexibly by the teacher based on students' level and circumstances.)

7. After completing the text instruction, lead students through the grammar exercises to confirm the grammar structures.
8. After completing the grammar exercises, for characters with more complex structures or that students tend to write incorrectly, provide explanation or demonstrate stroke order.

五、綜合活動 — Integrated Activities

Activity 1

1. Goal: Students can read the sentences in the dialogue without the assistance of Zhuyin or Pinyin, and pronounce them correctly.
 2. Method:

七、語音教學 / 語音複習 — Phonetics

1. Pinyin Introduced in This Lesson

Initials: zh, ch, sh, r

Finals: -ing, -an, -iong

Spelling notes:

1. When the final -ing has no initial before it, it is written as ying.
Example: yīng (英).
2. When the final -iong has no initial before it, it is written as yong.
Example: yòng (用).

2. Neutral Tone (輕聲 — Qīng Shēng)

In addition to the four standard tones in Mandarin, there is another tone that is lighter and shorter, with no tone mark. It is called the neutral tone (輕聲). Examples include: gēge (哥哥), mèimei (妹妹), xièxie (謝謝), shénme (什麼), nín ne (您呢).

3. Phonetic Combinations Not Used in Chinese

This lesson contains phonetic combinations that do not appear in any Chinese words. When practicing the four tones for a particular syllable, syllables that don't exist in Chinese may come up. In this textbook, such syllables are indicated with parentheses — for example: (rū), (xiǒng) — to indicate that these are not valid Mandarin syllables. Avoid drilling phonetic combinations that don't exist in Mandarin; use vocabulary from other lessons where possible.

4. Pronunciation Practice

Use projected slides or flashcards to have students read sentences or words aloud, and correct their pronunciation.

陸、網站資源延伸補充 — Online Resources

1. Stroke Order Website

<http://stroke-order.learningweb.moe.edu.tw/home.do>

1. Stroke order: The lesson vocabulary includes characters such as 運、網、還、聽, which beginner students tend to write with incorrect stroke order. Teachers may demonstrate the correct stroke order in class.
2. Character structure activity: Write the characters from groups A and B on the board (or projected slide), and have students discuss together to find which components from A combine with which from B to form characters. Teachers may increase or decrease this activity based on students' level and available time. During the activity, the teacher speaks as little as possible and lets students discuss on their own, finding the answers visually.

Find Chinese characters by combining one part from group A with one part from group B.

A: 辶 礻 扌 王 纟 重 B: 丁 周 力 見 求 軍

Starting example: 運 (yùn)

Fill in the remaining characters with their Pinyin: 運 (yùn) → 動 (dòng) → 視 (shì) → 打 (dǎ) → 網 (wǎng) → 球 (qiú)

Answer: 動、視、打、網、球

2. Character Instructional Videos

Suitable for beginning learners. No audio — shows the evolution of character form, stroke order, and pronunciation.
