

Lesson 7 — 請問您是哪位？

May I Ask Who This Is?

Let's Learn Mandarin · Book 1 · Teacher's Manual

壹、學習目標 — Learning Objectives

Theme: Telephone Etiquette

After completing this lesson, students will be able to use Chinese to:

1. Answer a phone call formally.
 2. State their own identity and reason for calling.
 3. Ask for someone's phone number.
 4. Leave a phone message.

貳、教學重點及教學活動設計 — Key Teaching Points and Activity Design

一、暖身活動 — Warm-Up Activities

1. Use pictures to provide context and ask students for their phone / cell phone numbers. Students can first say the numbers in their native language, then become familiar with how to say them in Chinese.
 2. Sentences to use in warm-up:
 - 你的電話（手機）是幾號？ — What is your phone (cell phone) number?
 - 我的電話（手機）是_____。 — My phone (cell phone) number is _____.

二、詞彙教學 — Vocabulary Notes

1. 哪位 (něi wèi) — “which person / who (polite)” 哪位 is a contraction of 哪一位 (nǎ yī wèi). When 哪 (nǎ) and 一 (yī) are adjacent, they contract to 哪 (něi). In colloquial speech, 哪位 is pronounced either něi wèi or nǎ wèi. Additionally, 哪 has high collocability with other words, so this lesson lists 哪 and 位 as two separate vocabulary items.
2. 喂 (wèi / wéi) — “hello (on the phone)” 喂 is used only in telephone speech (wéi), for calling out or getting someone's attention. When used to answer the phone or open a call, it is read as wèi.
3. 以後 (yǐhòu) — “after / afterward / later” This lesson lists 以後 as a noun functioning as a time word. It can also serve as a conjunction connecting two sentences, indicating two events that occur in sequence.

4. 謝謝 (xièxie) — “thank you” In this lesson, 謝謝 is listed as a verb and can be followed by a noun: e.g., 謝謝你, 謝謝大哥. It can also be used alone without a noun object, simply as 謝謝.
5. 好的 (hǎo de) — “all right / okay / understood” When the other party makes a request, gives a command, or assigns a task, responding with 好的 shows understanding and agreement.
6. 麻煩 (máfan) — “to trouble someone / to bother” In this lesson, 麻煩 is a polite expression used when asking someone for a favor, listed as a verb (V). For example: 麻煩你, 請她回來以後給我打電話。(Sorry to trouble you — please have her call me back when she returns.) In this lesson only the verb usage is taught; the stative verb (Vs) usage meaning “troublesome / annoying” (e.g., 這件事很麻煩) does not need to be introduced here.
7. 打 (dǎ) — “to make (a phone call)” The word 打 has many meanings in Chinese. In this lesson it means “to make / place (a phone call),” as in 打電話. In Lesson 6, 打在打網球 means “to play.” Teachers do not need to explain these different meanings of 打 separately — instead, strengthen collocation practice so students associate each phrase naturally.

◎ Teaching Method

For beginning-level vocabulary instruction, it is recommended to proceed from top to bottom, using sentences as the foundation rather than teaching vocabulary in isolation from the text. Instruction should pair vocabulary with context, introduce the lesson text and grammar simultaneously, help students recognize vocabulary and become familiar with usage, and then consolidate pronunciation. For detailed steps, refer to the suggested teaching flow in the Text Instruction section. This lesson contains many telephone-specific expressions — such as 哪位, 喂, 麻煩, 手機, 號碼, 幾號, 謝謝, 再見, etc. — and it is recommended to introduce them with situational context so students form strong impressions and deeper memory.

三、語法教學 — Grammar Patterns

Grammar Pattern 1 — 二 (èr) vs. 兩 (liǎng): Usage of “2”

1. When “2” stands alone as a numeral (not followed by a measure word), it is read as 二. For example:
 - 一、二、三、四、五 — one, two, three, four, five
2. When “2” is followed by a measure word to express quantity, it is read as 兩. For example:
 - 兩 + measure word + noun
 - 兩個妹妹 — two younger sisters
 - 兩個學生 — two students
3. “200” can be read as either 兩百 or 二百 — both are acceptable.

Number reading chart:

Arabic	Chinese	Arabic	Chinese	Arabic	Chinese	Arabic	C
1	一	23	二十三	41	四十一	73	七
5	五	29	二十九	45	四十五	85	八
17	十七	30	三十	52	五十二	91	九
18	十八	32	三十二	64	六十四	100	一

Grammar Pattern 2 — S + 給 + N/Pron + V (給 as preposition)

1. 給 is a preposition. It generally precedes a noun or pronoun to form a prepositional phrase placed before the verb. For example:
 - S + 給 + N/Pron + 打電話
 - Gloria 給明文打電話。— Gloria calls Mingwen.
 - 林美美給誰打電話？— Who is Lin Meimei calling?
 - 林美美給她父母打電話。— Lin Meimei is calling her parents.
2. In sentences with certain specific verbs, the prepositional phrase can also be placed after the verb with the same meaning. For example:
 - 我給他打電話。— I'm calling him.
 - 我打電話給他。— I'm calling him. (both are correct)

Grammar Pattern 3 — Event 1 + 以後 + Event 2

以後 connects two events that occur in sequence in time. 以後 comes at the end of the first sentence (after the first event), followed immediately by the second event. For example:

- event 1 + 以後 + event 2
- 李小姐聽音樂以後，常常去跑步。— After Miss Li listens to music, she often goes jogging.
- 美美慢跑以後，喜歡聽音樂。— After Meimei jogs, she likes to listen to music.

四、課文教學 — Text Instruction

◆ Key Sentences

1. 請問林小姐在嗎？— May I ask if Miss Lin is in?
2. 請問您是哪位？— May I ask who is calling?
3. 請問林小姐什麼時候回來？— May I ask when Miss Lin will be back?
4. 請問您的手機（電話號碼）是幾號？— May I ask what your cell phone (phone number) is?
5. 麻煩您，請她回來以後給我打電話。— Sorry to trouble you — please have her call me back after she returns.

◆ Suggested Teaching Flow

1. The teacher, speaking from the perspectives of Miss Lin (the receptionist) and Gloria (the caller), reads aloud the key sentences from the lesson text (pictures may be used), to familiarize students with the key sentences. For example:
 1. Miss Lin (receptionist): “喂，台一銀行，您好！/ 林小姐現在不在辦公室。/ 請問您是哪位？/ 您的手機是幾號？”
 2. Gloria (caller): “我是北電公司的 Gloria。/ 您好！請問林美美小姐在嗎？/ 請問林小姐什麼時候回來？/ 麻煩您，請她回來以後給我打電話。”
2. Read through the text together; students prepare context cards to aid comprehension.
3. Introduce grammar: Divide the dialogue into sections according to grammar patterns and teach in sequence. First let students understand sentence meaning and roughly memorize pronunciation; then reinforce specific grammar structures and vocabulary. The suggested flow is as follows:

1. Use a situational context to introduce the following dialogue:

A：喂，台一銀行，您好！ B：喂，您好！請問林美美小姐在嗎？ A：林小姐現在不在辦公室。請問您是哪位？ B：我是北電公司的 Gloria。請問林小姐什麼時候回來？ A：Gloria，林小姐下午回來。

2. Teacher-student Q&A: Have students become familiar with the sentences, memorize the meanings, and practice pronunciation.
3. Sequentially introduce the grammar patterns “S + 在 + place + 嗎”, “S + (不) 在 + place”, “S + 什麼時候 + 回來?”, and “S + 時間 + 回來”, which are the key telephone-call sentences used in this section. Use pictures or PPT with substitution drills to help students confirm the grammar structures and pay attention to pronunciation.
4. Wrap up by reviewing the dialogue, grammar structures, and pronunciation with students.
5. Then sequentially introduce the other dialogues, grammar patterns, and vocabulary.
4. After reading through the text again, ask comprehension questions based on the text. Sample questions:
 1. 林美美在哪裡工作？ — Where does Lin Meimei work?
 2. 誰給林美美打電話？ — Who is calling Lin Meimei?
 3. Gloria 在哪裡工作？ — Where does Gloria work?
 4. 林小姐在辦公室嗎？ — Is Miss Lin in the office?
 5. 林小姐什麼時候回來？ — When will Miss Lin be back?
 6. Gloria 請李小姐做什麼？ — What does Gloria ask Miss Li to do?
 7. Gloria 的手機是幾號？ — What is Gloria’s cell phone number?
5. Have students practice reading the text in groups, then have individual students take turns reading aloud, and correct pronunciation.
6. After completing the text instruction, lead students through the grammar exercises to confirm the grammar structures.
7. Using the content of the text, have students use what they have learned to do narration exercises, in order to achieve the lesson’s learning objectives. In addition to dialogue, students should also develop the ability to express themselves in narrative form.
 1. Put students in pairs and, using the key sentences from this lesson, cooperate to describe the phone conversation between Miss Li and Gloria.
 2. The teacher provides necessary vocabulary or phrases via flashcards or PPT, and has students produce the following content:
 - a. 北電公司的 Gloria 給台一銀行的林美美打電話。 — Gloria from Beidian Company is calling Lin Meimei at Tai-yi Bank.
 - b. 林美美現在不在辦公室，她下午回來。 — Lin Meimei is not in the office right now; she’ll be back in the afternoon.
 - c. Gloria 麻煩李小姐，請林美美回來以後給她打電話。 — Gloria asks Miss Li to please have Lin Meimei call her back after she returns.
 - d. Gloria 的手機號碼是 (五一七) 三六〇四二五九。 — Gloria’s cell phone number is (517) 360-4259.

(The above content may be adjusted flexibly by the teacher based on students’ level and circumstances.)

8. After completing the grammar exercises, for characters with more complex structures or that students tend to write incorrectly, provide explanation or demonstrate stroke order.
 9. Teachers may, based on students' level and available class time, have students do role-play activities for phone answering.

五、綜合活動 — Integrated Activities

Activity 4

1. Goal: Students can fluently use the content learned in this lesson and supplement it with two additional phone call scenarios, enabling them to handle telephone conversations in Chinese.
 2. Method:

七、語音教學 / 語音複習 — Phonetics

1. Pinyin Introduced in This Lesson

Finals: -ie, -er, -ian, -iang, -un (uen), -uang

Spelling notes:

1. When -ie has no initial before it, it is written as ye. Example: yě (也).
2. When -ian has no initial before it, it is written as yan. Example: yán (言).
3. When -iang has no initial before it, it is written as yang. Example: yáng (羊).
4. When -un (-uen) has no initial before it, it is written as wen. Example: wén (文).
5. When -uang has no initial before it, it is written as wang. Example: wáng (王).

2. Phonetic Combinations Not Used in Chinese

This lesson contains phonetic combinations that do not appear in any Chinese words. When practicing the four tones for a particular syllable, syllables that don't exist in Chinese may come up. In this textbook, such syllables are indicated with parentheses — for example: (jiáng), (kún). These indicate that Mandarin has no syllable with that pronunciation. When conducting practice, teachers should try to use vocabulary from other lessons and avoid drilling phonetic combinations that don't exist in Mandarin.

3. Pronunciation Practice

Use projected slides or flashcards to have students read sentences or words aloud, and correct their pronunciation.

陸、網站資源延伸補充 — Online Resources

1. Stroke Order Website

<http://stroke-order.learningweb.moe.edu.tw/home.do>

1. Stroke order: The lesson vocabulary includes characters such as 辦、給、機、號、謝, which beginner students tend to write with incorrect stroke order. Teachers may demonstrate the correct stroke order in class.

2. Character structure activity: Write the characters from groups A and B on the board (or projected slide), and have students discuss together to find which components from A combine with which from B to form characters. Teachers may increase or decrease this activity based on students' level and available time. During the activity, the teacher speaks as little as possible and lets students discuss on their own, finding the answers visually.

Find Chinese characters by combining one part from group A with one part from group B.

A: 才 亻 言 纟 木 宀 号 目 石 B: 舌 至 幾 馬 虎
子 兒 合 立

Starting example: 李 (lǐ)

Fill in the remaining characters with their Pinyin: 李 (lǐ) → 位 (wèi) → 室 (shì) → 給 (gěi) → 碼 (mǎ) → 話 (huà) → 機 (jī) → 號 (hào) → 見 (jiàn)

Answer: 位、室、給、碼、話、機、號、見
