

Lesson 9 — 你星期五有時間嗎？

Are You Free on Friday?

Let's Learn Mandarin · Book 1 · Teacher's Manual

壹、教學目標 — Learning Objectives

Theme: Social Invitations

After completing this lesson, students will be able to use Chinese to:

1. Invite a friend to go out for a meal.
 2. Understand and say days of the week and times.
 3. Accept or decline an invitation as appropriate.
 4. Confirm details of an invitation, including the day, time, and place.

貳、教學重點及教學活動設計 — Teaching Focus and Activity Design

一、暖身活動 — Warm-Up Activities

1. Activity format: Use a calendar as a prop to introduce students to the days of the week in Chinese. Ask questions to help students become familiar with how to say the days of the week in Mandarin.
 2. Sentences to use:
 - 今天 (明天 / __ 月 __ 號) 是星期幾？ — What day of the week is today (tomorrow / the __th of __)?
 - 今天 (明天 / __ 月 __ 號) 是星期 __。 — Today (tomorrow / the __th of __) is __ day.

二、詞彙教學 — Vocabulary Notes

1. 星期 can also be said as 禮拜, and the usage is identical. For example, 星期一 can also be said as 禮拜一.
2. 要 is an auxiliary verb expressing personal intention or a plan — its usage is similar to 想. When followed by an action verb, it indicates the intention to do something: 我們要去美味餐廳吃飯。(We're going to go eat at Meimei Restaurant.) The negative form is 不要. The difference between 想 and 要: something you 想 to do is still just a thought or plan — it may or may not happen. Something you 要 to do has already been decided, and the probability of it happening is high.
3. 行 and 不行 are used in responses and mean “okay/can” and “not okay/can't.” They can be used on their own or followed by a phrase or sentence. For example, the question 星期五怎麼樣？ can be answered with simply 不行 or 星期五不行.

4. 那 is a demonstrative determiner used to refer to something farther away from the speaker. 那家 (nà jiā) is a contraction of 那一家 (nà yī jiā).
5. 最 is an adverb placed before stative verbs (Vs) to indicate “the most” or “best” within a category. For example: 那家餐廳的牛肉麵最好吃。(That restaurant’s beef noodle soup is the best.)
6. 怎麼樣 is used to ask about a situation or to ask for an opinion. For example:
 - A: 星期五怎麼樣? B: 星期五不行。(A: How about Friday? B: Friday doesn’t work.)
 - A: 美味餐廳怎麼樣? B: 那家餐廳的牛肉麵最好吃。(A: How about Meimei Restaurant? B: That restaurant’s beef noodle soup is the best.)
7. The phrase 太好了 is used to respond to what someone has said, expressing excitement or pleasant surprise. When teaching it, teachers should provide context so students know when to use it correctly. Do not over-explain the grammatical structure of 太……了 at this stage.

◎ Teaching Method

For beginning-level vocabulary instruction, it is recommended to teach from top to bottom, using sentences as the foundation rather than teaching words in isolation outside of the text. During instruction, build context first, then introduce the text, grammar, and vocabulary simultaneously. This helps students recognize vocabulary, become familiar with usage, and reinforce pronunciation. See the recommended teaching flow in the text instruction section below.

三、語法教學 — Grammar Notes

1. Days of the Week (星期幾)

1. 星期幾? is a question asking which day of the week it is. To answer, simply replace 幾 with the correct number. Note that in Chinese, 星期天 can also be said as 星期日, but 星期天 is more common in spoken language.
2. 星期 and 禮拜 have the same meaning and usage. In written language, 週 can be used instead of 星期 or 禮拜: 週一 is the same as 星期一, and so on. However, 週日 is used for Sunday — you cannot say 週天.

2. Date and Time Word Order

In Chinese, time expressions follow the order from largest unit to smallest, for example:

- 二〇二一年九月十八號星期六晚上 — Saturday evening, September 18, 2021
- 今年三月二十五號星期二上午 — Tuesday morning, March 25th of this year

3. Telling Time

1. Asking the time:
 - 家明: 現在幾點? — Jiaming: What time is it now?
 - 家文: 現在十點二十分。 — Jiawen: It’s 10:20.
2. O’clock (點鐘):

- 一點鐘 (1:00), 兩點鐘 (2:00). 鐘 can be omitted — you can just say 一點 or 兩點.
3. Minutes (分):
- 兩點十分 (2:10), 四點二十分 (4:20). When the minutes are over 10, 分 can be omitted: 四點二十, 五點三十.
4. Half past (半):
- 三十 minutes can be said as 半. For example: 一點半 (1:30), 兩點半 (2:30).

4. 跟 + Someone + 一起 + V(O) — Doing Something Together With Someone

跟 + someone is placed before the main verb to indicate doing something with that person. It is commonly used together with 一起. For example:

- 跟 + Someone + 一起 + V(O)
- 我週末跟我父母一起吃晚飯。 — I eat dinner with my parents on the weekend.
- 我常常跟我弟弟一起運動。 — I often exercise with my younger brother.

四、課文教學 — Text Instruction

◆ Key Sentences

1. 你要不要跟我們一起去? — Do you want to come with us?
2. 星期六不行, 星期五怎麼樣? — Saturday doesn't work — how about Friday?
3. 我們星期五晚上六點半在餐廳見。 — Let's meet at the restaurant at 6:30 on Friday evening.
4. 那家餐廳的牛肉麵最好吃。 — That restaurant's beef noodle soup is the best.

◆ Suggested Teaching Flow

1. Taking the perspective of Wang Mingwen and Gloria (with pictures if available), say some of the key sentences from the text. For example: “星期六晚上我們要去美味餐廳吃飯, 你要不要跟我們一起去?”, “星期六不行, 星期五怎麼樣?”, “我們星期五晚上六點半在餐廳見。”, “那家餐廳的牛肉麵最好吃。” — and so on — to familiarize students with the key sentences of the lesson.
2. Lead the class in reading the text aloud together. Flashcards may be prepared to help students understand the text.
3. Introduce grammar through the text: divide the dialogue into sections and teach them in order. First help students understand the meaning and roughly memorize the pronunciation, then reinforce individual grammar structures and vocabulary.
Suggested flow:
 1. Use context to introduce the dialogue:
 - A: Gloria, long time no see.
 - B: Hi, Mingwen. This is my colleague Lisa.
 - A: Lisa, nice to meet you.
 - C: Nice to meet you too.
 - B: Mingwen, we're going to Meimei Restaurant for dinner on Saturday evening — do you want to come with us?
 - A: Saturday doesn't work — how about Friday?
 - B: Friday works too.

2. Q&A between teacher and students to help students become familiar with sentences, memorize meanings, and practice pronunciation.
3. Introduce Grammar Pattern 1 (days of the week), Grammar Pattern 2 (date and time word order), and the usage of 行/不行 and 怎麼樣 in sequence. Use pictures or slides, and replace items through questioning and substitution drills to help students confirm grammar structures and pay attention to pronunciation.
4. Review the dialogue, grammar structures, and pronunciation in a consolidated way.
5. Continue to introduce the remaining dialogue, grammar, vocabulary, and other content.
4. After reading the text again, ask comprehension questions based on the text.

Sample questions:

1. Lisa 是誰？— Who is Lisa?
2. Gloria 和 Lisa 星期六要做什麼？— What are Gloria and Lisa going to do on Saturday?
3. 明文要不要跟她們一起去？— Does Mingwen want to go with them?
4. 明文星期幾有時間？— Which day is Mingwen free?
5. Gloria、Lisa 星期五也有時間嗎？— Are Gloria and Lisa also free on Friday?
6. 明文星期五幾點下課？— What time does Mingwen finish class on Friday?
7. 她們什麼時候在餐廳見？— When are they meeting at the restaurant?
8. 那家餐廳的什麼最好吃？— What is the best thing to eat at that restaurant?

Additional questions to personalize:

9. 你常跟誰一起去吃飯嗎？— Who do you usually go out to eat with?
10. 你週末常跟朋友去吃飯嗎？— Do you often go out to eat with friends on weekends?
11. 你喜歡跟朋友去哪個餐廳吃飯？— What restaurant do you like to go to with friends?
5. Have students practice reading the text aloud in groups, then have individual students take turns reading it. Correct pronunciation as needed.
6. Using the content from the text, have students practice narration using what they have learned, in order to achieve the lesson's learning objectives. Students should develop not just dialogue skills but also the ability to narrate independently.
 1. In pairs, have students use the key sentences to describe the plans of Wang Mingwen, Gloria, and Lisa.
 2. Using flashcards or slides to supply needed vocabulary and phrases, have students produce the following content:
 - a. Lisa 是 Gloria 的同事。— Lisa is Gloria's colleague.
 - b. 星期六晚上 Gloria 和 Lisa 要去美味餐廳吃飯。— On Saturday evening, Gloria and Lisa are going to Meimei Restaurant for dinner.
 - c. 明文也要跟她們一起去，可是他星期六不行。— Mingwen also wants to go with them, but Saturday doesn't work for him.
 - d. 明文星期五有時間，Gloria 和 Lisa 也行。— Mingwen is free on Friday, and Gloria and Lisa are okay with that too.
 - e. 明文星期五下午五點下課。— Mingwen finishes class at 5:00

PM on Friday.

- f. 他們星期五晚上六點半在餐廳見。— They are meeting at the restaurant at 6:30 on Friday evening.
- g. 那家餐廳的牛肉麵最好吃。— That restaurant's beef noodle soup is the best.

(The teacher may add or remove items above based on students' level and situation.)

7. After the text instruction is complete, have students complete the grammar exercises to confirm grammar structures.
 8. After completing the grammar exercises, demonstrate stroke order for characters that have complex structures or that students are prone to writing incorrectly.

陸、網站資源延伸補充 — Online Resources

1. Chinese Character Stroke Order

<http://stroke-order.learningweb.moe.edu.tw/home.do>

1. Stroke order: The characters 事、廳、麵、飯、樣 and others introduced in this lesson are prone to stroke-order errors for beginning learners. Teachers may demonstrate stroke order in class.
2. Character structure: Write the components from Sets A and B below on the board (or via projector) and have students discuss and identify which characters can be formed by combining them. This activity can be adjusted based on students' level and time available. The teacher should guide minimally and allow students to discuss and identify answers visually on their own.

Find characters formed from components in Sets A and B:

Set A: 口 木 言 日 宀 臣 冫 走 其

Set B: 月 巳 寺 艮 亅 巳 果 兼 生

(Character in Set A is circled: 冫; character in Set B is circled: 巳)

Answer: 星、期、時、跟、起、課、家、樣

2. Character Instructional Videos

Suitable for beginning learners. Videos show character evolution, stroke order, and pronunciation (no audio narration).

七、語音教學 / 語音複習 — Phonetics / Phonetics Review

This review assumes students have already learned Pinyin and serves as a review of various sounds and spelling rules. All phonetic symbols are introduced progressively throughout Books 1–9.

1. Finals introduced in this lesson: -uai, -ui (uei), -üe, -en, -in

- Note 1: When -uai has no initial, it is written wai. Example: wài (外 — foreign / outside in the learner's native language).
- Note 2: When -ui has no initial, it is written wei. Example: wèi (喂 — hello / hey).
- Note 3: When the initial before -üe is j, q, or x, it is written -ue: xuē (學), quē (缺), jué (覺).
- Note 4: When -üe has no initial, it is written yue: yuè (月).
- Note 5: When -in has no initial, it is written yin: yín (銀).

- To practice all four tones on certain syllables, this lesson may include syllables that do not exist as real Chinese words. These are marked with () in the text — for example: (kuái), (huāi), (huǎi), (wái), (duī), (duí), (guí), (yué), (yuě). When teachers use these for practice, try to draw from actual lesson vocabulary as much as possible; avoid drilling syllable combinations that don't appear in real Chinese.
- Slides or flashcards may be used to have students read sentences or words aloud and correct pronunciation.
